Assisting Mrs. Scott were Mrs. Joe Scott and her sister, Miss Lurline De Courcy.

HIGHLAND PARK BAPTISTS PREPARING TO BUILD.

Very Impressive Ceremony Held Early Monday Morning.

A goodly number of men and women met at the Highland Park Baptist church this morning at 8 o'clock to witness the ceremony attending the pulling off of the first shingle of the church, preparatory to tearing it away to be replaced by a new building.

The assemblage stood with uncovered heads and the exercises were opened by singing "How Firm a Foundation." Rev. W. S. Keese, the pastor, read from that portion of the Scriptures relative to the building of Solomon's temple.

A brief historical sketch of the church was read by W. D. Powell, after which the pastor offered a prayer.

It had been planned to have Mrs. M. C. Huff, one of the longest-time members of the church, who had served in selecting the present site, to pull off the first board or shingle, but owing to her absence, W. D. Powell was selected. As the heads were bowed, Mr. Powell ascended the ladder and tore away the first shingle. The shingle was purchased by J. E. Smith for the sum of $5 and presented to Mrs. Keese as a souvenir.

The Sunday school auditorium will be first torn away. A week from Sunday there will be a meeting in the church, at which the three former pastors—Revs. Vance, Cecil and Brooks—will be present. Later the congregation will meet in the Fourth District school.

The women of the Highland Park Baptist church will have a luncheon booth at the fair, which will be kept open day and night, the proceeds are to be applied to the building fund.

Rev. S. J. Baker, of Macon, Ga., is supplying the pulpit of the North Chattanooga Baptist church, this month.

BONNY OAKS SERVICES

Rev. Baker, an English Minister Makes Interesting Talk.

Rev. S. L. Baker, of Macon, Ga., spoke in the chapel at Bonny Oaks school Sunday afternoon. There were a large number of boys and girls present, supplemented by goodly representation of community people.

Rev. Baker is in Chattanooga visiting his daughter, Mrs. P. L. Johnston and Mr. Johnston. He is originally from England and was a student at the Spurgeon school in London.

He spoke from the eighteenth chapter of Jeremiah, on making pottery and adapted it to character molding in a way within the grasp of the childish mind. He enlivened his talk with sparkling remarks which succeeded in catching the children's attention.

The children sang several Sunday school songs, led by O. K. Webb of the school, and Dr. W. S. Keese made the closing prayer.

Following the services a large box of candy which had been donated by Mr. Sanford Bennett, of the Bennett-Hubbard Candy company, was distributed by young girls, and what was left over was taken to the children of the colored ward, numbering only nineteen. There are 100 white girls and boys in the school.

The chapel has recently been tinted, shades hung and seats installed. Mrs. Sophia Edwards, the superintendent, has been presented with a new automobile by the board of managers, of which she is very proud. Quite a party from the city went out to the services.
